Speaking on the occasion Senior Congress leader Thakur Balwan Singh (ex-MLA) lashed out at the Modi Govt. for its vendetta politics and the BJP for serious assault on the constitution and the democracy during its regime. The disqualification of Rahul

JAMMU / NEW DELHI, Jul 7: Former Minister and State President JKNPP, Harsh Dev Singh submitted a memorandum to General V.K Singh Union Minister of State for Road Transport and Highways at New Delhi today seeking early double laning of Udhampur–Ghordi road in District Udhampur in consonance with the assurance given by Nitin Gadkari during his visit to Ghordi during elections in 2014.

He apprised the Union MoS about the public commitment made by Gadkari for double laning of the 38 km road from Udhampur to Ghordi. He had assured immediate commencement of work on the said project and its early completion while addressing a gathering of thousands of people assembled on the occasion, divulged Singh.

Harsh Dev said that though Gadkari had issued instructions in this regard for execution of the said road project under CRF and the work was also started but regretfully abandoned merely after straightening a few curves. The result is that out of 38 kms of single road, it is only about 8-9 kms that has been doublelaned leaving the rest around 30 kms of road in shabby condition. On public agitating over the issue, it was said that funds under CRF had been stopped by the centre and that around 18 kms of single lane stretch would be blacktopped under PMGSY to a population of over 1.50 lakh. In the absence of a bridge, all the said vehicles are using an aqueduct to cross over the river. The said aqueduct constructed by PDC has been declared unsafe for traffic around 20 years back. The use of the said road however has been discontinued thereby creating huge inconvenience for several thousands of people commuting on the said road every day. Strange however that despite the matter being in the notice of authorities concerned has failed to elicit appropriate response. Sad that even the central Minister's commitments and directions have been taken non-seriously resulting in public uproar and resentment", regretted Harsh.

Harsh Dev appealed to the Union Minister of State that double lane from Udhampur to Ghordi alongwith the Bridge on its alignment at Salmay be constructed as assured and committed in the public rally held in 2014 so that the public of the area could heave a sigh of relief.

SOLAR ENERGY

ncreasing global warming and pollution day by day has forced people to think about the alternatives of nonrenewable sources of energy like petrol diesel and electricity. The government has recently prepared a plan till 2070, in which the use of solar energy and other renewable energy sources has been emphasized.

With a population of close to 1.4 billion and a fast-growing economy with huge potential for growth, India's energy mix in future years will be critical to the world's and India's climate action goals. India is already the third largest energy consuming economy after China and the United States.

In this situation, supplying energy to such a huge population is nothing less than a huge challenge. No country can supply uninterrupted power supply to 1.4 billion people, in this situation the need for solar energy becomes essential.

India is facing many problems in meeting its energy demand, solar energy can play an important role in providing energy security. The pollution-free nature of solar power, along with its virtually inexhaustible supply and global distribution, make it a very attractive energy resource.

Now the world is getting ready to deal with the increasing climate change day by day, and our weapon to deal with climate change will be; solar energy. The Government of India is also committed to the development of solar energy, that is why the government is aiming to increase the installed renewable energy capacity to 500 GW (gigawatts) by 2030.

India, located in the tropical belt, receives high amounts of solar energy for 300 days of the year, which amounts to more than 5,000 trillion kWh for 2300–3,000 hours of sunshine.

Solar energy venture in India is a fast growing industry as part of renewable energy in India. The country's solar power installed capacity as of 31 August 2021 was 44.3 GW.

India has established about 42 solar parks to provide land to the promoters of solar plants. India has the 5th largest installed capacity of solar power in the world. India's Intended Nationally Determined Contribution (INDC) commitment includes 100 GW of solar power out of 175 GW of renewable energy by 2022. There is immense potential for creating new jobs in this sector; The 1 GW solar manufacturing facility creates around 4000 direct and indirect jobs. In addition solar deployment, operation and maintenance creates additional recurring employment in this sector. Progress is being made for storage, which has the potential to revolutionize this sector globally, until then the dependence on fossils can be reduced by gradually increasing the share of renewable energy. India is expected to have 8% of global solar capacity by 2035. With a potential future capacity of 363 gigawatts (GW), India can be a global leader in reaping the benefits of the energy sector. According to a report prepared by The Energy and Resources Institute (TERI), India's reservoirs with a cumulative surface area of 18000 sq km have the potential to generate 280 GW of solar power through floating solar PV. The National Institute of Solar Energy (NISE) estimates that India will have a solar power potential of about 750 GW, with Rajasthan, Jammu and Kashmir (before bifurcation), Maharashtra being the top states with the highest solar potential.

Diversity vs homogeneity, as Pawar play rocks Maha

By: Shikha Mukerjee

The difference between the Dada Saheb, that is Sharad Pawar, and Ajit Dada Pawar is the difference between the original and a smudgy copy. Malefactor Ajit Pawar, along with other malcontents like Chhagan Bhujbal, Sunil Tatkare, Praful Patel and some others, may have split the Nationalist Congress Party, but the mutineers dare not discard Sharad Pawar, who looms large over Maharashtra politics.

The stage of the rebels' muchawaited meeting to demonstrate their command over the majority of 53 NCP MLAs in the Maharashtra Assembly was dominated by a huge banner with Sharad Pawar's image presiding over the event. Clearly, the mutineers don't dare to forswear their allegiance to the legendary leader, because that would probably be politically suicidal.

The bottom line seems to be regardless of how many MLAs Ajit Pawar can parade at his meeting, he cannot afford to supplant Sharad Pawar. That is the admission of a loser. So too is the justification that their "robbery", as Sharad Pawar termed it, or "treachery", as other leaders have done, the mutiny is not a betrayal, but in line with the undivided NCP's actions in joining forces with the Congress and then forming an alliance with the Shiv Sena. In other words, the mutineers need Sharad Pawar to wash away the stigma of betraying the legendary leader.

By taking on Maharashtra's tallest leader and NCP's founder, who is also India's eldest statesman, the BJP may have got more than it bargained for. Sharad Pawar is a cancer survivor who is pushing 83. But he is neither down nor is he out. Launching a grudge match against the Shiv Sena's Uddhav Thacekery for abandoning the National Democratic Alliance in 2019 by seducing Eknath Shinde and a majority of Shiv Sena MLAs is entirely different from splitting the NCP.

While there are noises emanating from Bihar via Sushil Kumar Modi to indicate that Nitish Kumar and the Janata Dal (United) could be the next location for version 2.0 of Operation Lotus and in Karnataka, B.S. Yediyurappa and H.D. Kumaraswami are predicting that there will be a split in the Congress and the downfall of the party, the BJP needs to do a rethink. Is it politically wise to surrender the high moral ground for the dubious pleasure of winning a grudge match against Sharad Pawar? The way Sharad Pawar had responded to the crisis within his party suggests that he has chosen to identify the BJP as the unprincipled attacker, by keeping the doors of his establishment open for rebels to return as prodigals.

If as the noises made by Sushil Modi from Bihar and B.S. Yediyurappa and H.D. Kumaraswami in Karnataka are portents of the BJP's plans to extend its domain by splitting and toppling the ruling parties in the two states, it may be Nitish Kumar's and Mallikarjun Kharge's best counter strategy to claim the high moral ground and brand the BJP as vengeful aggressors. That would put the BJP in the uncomfortable position of explaining why it has an insatiable appetite for promoting the agenda of one leader-one party-one nation and its concomitant double/triple engine sarkar, months before the 2024 Lok Sabha elections.

Pollsters and pundits have confirmed that Narendra Modi is India's most popular leader and the most recognisable face not only within the country but is large parts of the world. As the leader with the highest popularity ratings, why does he and the BJP need to engage in unsavoury split-and-topple politics, less than 300 days away from a general election where the expectation is that Mr Modi will win a third term?

The targeting of Sharad Pawar, Nitish Kumar and Mallikarjun Kharge, who is not only the Congress president but also Karnataka's best-known politician, indicates that the BJP is uneasy about the power of the collective leadership of the Opposition, which is intent on forming an alliance to fight and defeat the Sangh Parivar. The BJP has been tarred for unleashing a series of raids and investigations by the investigative "agencies" --ED, CBI, NIA, I-T, DRI, CBDT -- against ruling parties in West Bengal, National Capital Territory of Delhi, Telangana and Tamil Nadu, where Mamata Banerjee, Arvind Kejriwal, K. Chandrashekhar Rao and M.K. Stalin are powerful and influential leaders.

Politics is a dynamic process. By giving itself a single-point agenda of cobbling together higher vote shares in Opposition-ruled states by splitting regional parties and encouraging defections ahead of the 2024 Lok Sabha elections, the BJP is revealing its need to exercise abundant caution by creating new equations to guarantee its victory. The BJP's topplingdefections game then becomes a sort of Ponzi scheme, to invent ways of maintaining the high returns it has grown accustomed to after the first Narendra Modi victory in 2014. Before venturing into Bihar or Karnataka or splitting the Samajwadi Party in Uttar Pradesh in preparation for the 2024 Lok Sabha election, it may be wise politics to find out what voters think in states like Madhya Pradesh, which goes to the polls later this year.

Voters in Karnataka rejected the BJP and delivered an emphatic mandate to the Congress in the Assembly. Voters in Madhya Pradesh may do the same, because they may feel the Kamal Nath government was ousted in 2020 after the BJP engineered defections. To believe that voters across India, from Maharashtra to Bihar and Tamil Nadu, will choose Mr Modi and the BJP in the Lok Sabha elections, even if they reject the party and its leader in the state polls, is a risky generalisation. The masterminds of 6A Deen Dayal Upadhyaya Marg in New Delhi should not assume that the politics of split-defection-topple has unconditional voter support everywhere.

The events in Maharashtra throw up several questions and not a few challenges, not for the anti-BJP Opposition, comprising mostly regional and small parties, but for the BJP. Is there an alternative to Sharad Pawar in Maharashtra politics? There is no one, not in the BJP, not in the Congress, not in the BJP, not in the Congress, not in the Shiv Sena, who comes even close. The NCP split has lifted his political significance, in national politics, to an entirely different level, making him a formidable challenger.

After the news broke, Sharad Pawar 's response was masterly. He travelled to Karad and then Satara to pay his respects to his mentors Y.B. Chavan and Appasaheb Bhaurao Patil, a reformer and political heavyweight. In doing so he demonstrated his extraordinary connect with the masses. Corny as this may sound, Sharad Pawar's actions spoke louder than words; the politics of manipulation and gas lighting has to be certified by voters to gain legitimacy. As an Opposition leader, Sharad Pawar has it.

With solar energy of about 5000 trillion kWh per year, India has the potential to generate 35 MW/sq km using solar PV and solar thermal energy.

ome is a child's Tfirst school, from I Iwhere the child's learning process begins. The relationship between parents plays an important role in the overall development of the child because the character and future of the child originates from home. Children's innocent childhood is devoid of enmity and jealousy, beyond the shadow of conflict, only then it is said, 'Children are true in heart!' A profound effect on the psyche Often at home, family members keep talking about domestic matters in front of children. Sometimes such things happen They go, which have a deep impact on the psyche of the child knowingly or unknowingly.

Lead the Children with Ease

refrain from talking about domestic matters in front of the child because the mental level of the child is still developing completely. Children live alone In recent times, joint families are breaking up and the era of small families has started. The affection of family members has decreased and families are getting smaller keeping needs in mind, but this period has a greater impact on child rearing. Children alone in small families Lives in this because often the parents are busy with their work and the child is not brought up properly. Due to living in solitude, the child becomes an introvert. On the other hand, if the child stays in a joint family, he will become sociable and he will get a sense of relationships. In this way, he will understand the importance of relationships from childhood. Moral responsibility In order to make the child a good and noble hearted person, it is the duty of the parents to keep the child away from negative qualities like enmity, jealousy and the mind of the child.Colors of love for all should be filled in it. Due to hostility, the child will become a master of retrograde thinking. By having a feeling of love towards everyone, self-confidence will develop in the child's mind. Influence of home environment It is said that 'Jaisa Anna Vaisa Man'. In the same way, the nature of the child will be the same as the atmosphere in the house.

If the home environment is negative then the child's nature will be stubborn and if the home environment is positive then the child's nature will be cheerful and sociable. The role of parents The children Parents play an important role in parenting. The attitude of the parents has a major impact on the child's mentality. If there is sourness in the relationship between the parents, then it will have a deep impact on the child's future and if the relationship between the parents is bound in the bond of love, then the child's attitude towards life will also be positive.

JAMMU, Jul 7: A number of roads in the Jammu city are dilapidated in absence of macadamisation or repair. If this is condition of roads, and the attitude of government officials in the capital city, what can be the situation in towns and villages.

JMC Corporator Pritam Singh visited Shanti Nagar area of Jammu City and take stock of dilapidated conditions of roads and other problems that people face especially during monsoon season. While talking to media he raised the concern that the poor performance of development project is raising concerns.

He further said that Shanti Nagar area have around 20 feet wide road but have not fully macadamised even PWD have sanctioned it to be maintained it on time many complaints have raised from locals but no one responded. People at Apna Vihar area alleged similar problems.

The list of such complaints is long with no-one coming to the rescue of the affected people. There should be an end to such official callousness. The people in several areas suffer he added.

Sometimes accidents also occur. During rains, the water logging and traffic jamming occurs on these roads. It is a big problem. The concerned authorities must listen to the people and repair and macadamise the roads without any further delay.

Any complacency on part of the government officials must be taken seriously he added.

He concluded with that the concerned authorities should stop ignoring or taking lightly the demands of people in several areas of Jammu city for macadamisation or repairing of roads.

DAK calls for public awareness on generic drugs

TOP NEWS REPORT

SRINAGAR, Jul 7: Doctors Association Kashmir (DAK) on Friday called for public awareness on generic drugs.

"We need to create awareness among people about the fact that generic drugs are equal to their branded counterparts in terms of strength, quality, efficacy and safety. And, they cost 80 to 90 percent less than the branded medicines as manufactures do not have to spend on the development and promotion of the drug," said DAK President Dr Nisar ul Hassan.

Dr Hassan said negative perception has been created that because generic drugs are cheaper, they will be less effective.

As a result people buy only costly branded medicines leading to heavy healthcare costs among the public. "We need to raise awareness among people that would change their perception towards generic drugs," he said adding "more education for both doctors and patients would increase the prescriptions and use of generic drugs." The DAK President said research has shown that out-of-pocket costs were lowered significantly among patients who were prescribed generic medicines compared with patients who had been given branded generic drugs that saved millions of lives of patients with AIDS,' he added.

Dr Nisar said while generic drug use has increased over time, in JK doctors continue to dole out expensive therapies when equally effective and cheaper versions are available. This is in violation to the recommendations of National Medical Council (NMC) which mandates prescribing of generic drugs. "Unless a legal framework is put in place, the push for generic medicines will remain an idea without implementation," he said.

Paras Health, Panchkula perform DBS surgery in Parkinson's patients

TOP NEWS REPORT

JAMMU / CHANDI-GARH, Jul 7: Parkinson's disease is the second most common neuro degenerative disease in the whole world. Its symptoms are often missed or misdiagnosed with old age and many elderly patients are left untreated. Common symptoms of Parkinson's disease include slowness in daily activities, stiffness in body, shaking or trembling of hands, legs, and jaw, difficulty in walking or losing balance while walking.

Paras Health, Panchkula is now first in the region to do this advanced treatment -Deep Brain Stimulation (DBS) surgery in Parkinson's patients with North India's first formally trained Parkinson's specialist neurologist - Dr

Jaslovleen Sidhu, who is trained at London and Singapore for DBS programme.

Patients now can avail such special services and do not have to travel to far off places for this advanced surgery for Parkinson's disease. Dr. Jaslovleen Kaur Sidhu. Head-Parkinson's Disease & Movement Disorders and Dr. Aman Batish, Neurosurgeon at Paras Health, Panchkula have recently performed DBS Surgery at Paras Health, Panchkula on a 64 year old male with Parkinson's disease.

The patient had symptoms since last 10 years and was taking multiple medications. The patient was screened for the procedure by Parkinson's disease specialist Dr Jaslovleen Sidhu and after detailed evaluation he was cleared for surgery. Subthalamic nucleus of brain was the planned target by Dr Sidhu. Patient responded well to surgery, and after surgery his medications were reduced to 50%. Patient is now able to do most of his activities, for which he needed support previously.

According to Dr Jaslovleen Sidhu this is like a pacemaker surgery for the brain which can control the symptoms by changing the electrical signals of the electrodes placed in the brain. "Patients who need DBS surgery have to be screened by a Parkinson's specialist neurologist and have to undergo UPDRS on & off testing before they can be declared fit for surgery. Also, since this is an awake surgery, Parkinson's specialists have to monitor the patient during the whole surgery to confirm if the electrodes are put in

Dr Aman Batish said that patients need detailed evaluation of all such symptoms and treatment is planned according to their age, symptoms and tolerance. Since Parkinson's disease is a progressive disease, the medications will not give good effect for long and brain surgery needs to be planned in such cases. Deep Brain

Stimulation surgery is done for Parkinson's disease patients when they develop fluctuations after a few years of medications. As a patient quoted to

Day before Bengal panchayat polls, Congress worker killed, 4 BJP workers shot at

KOLKATA, Jul 7 (Agencies): A day before the panchayat polls in West Bengal, a Congress worker was killed in Murshidabad district on Friday while four Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) workers were injured after being shot at in Cooch Behar district.

In Murshidabad, Congress worker, Aravind Mandal, was killed in Ranninagar area. He was the brother of Hriday Mandal, the party candidate for the panchayat polls. The incident came as Governor CV Ananda Bose is scheduled to visit violence-hit areas of the district today.

The Congress alleged that Trinamool Congress (TMC) workers killed Aravind Mandal by beating him to death. TMC refuted the allegations

With this latest fatality, five people have died in Murshidabad alone in the run-up to the panchayat polls. So far, 18 people were killed since the nomination process began.

On the other hand, four BJP workers were shot at in Dinhata area in Cooch Behar last night when their TMC counterparts allegedly threw crude bombs and opened fire at them.

The injured were identified as Milan Barman, Chandra Barman, Arjun Barman and Hero Barman. All of them were admitted to a nearby hospital.

Meanwhile, the governor will visit some areas in Murshidabad, which has been affected by political violence. He has previously visited Bhangar, Canning and Basanti in South 24 Parganas, and Cooch Behar where clashes broke out between political parties.

The high-stakes panchayat polls are scheduled to be held on July 8 (Saturday). Campaigning ended on Thursday.

West clashes with Russia and Iran at UN over Tehran's uranium enrichment and drones for Russia

The sharp exchanges came at the council's semi-annual meeting on implementation of its resolution endorsing the 2015 nuclear deal between Iran and six major countries

UNITED NATIONS, Jul 7 (Agencies): The United States and its Western allies clashed with Russia and Iran at the U.N. Security Council over Tehran's advancing uranium enrichment and its reported supply of combat drones to Moscow being used to attack Ukraine.

The sharp exchanges came at the council's semi-annual meeting on implementation of its resolution endorsing the 2015 nuclear deal between Iran and six major countries known as the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action, which the U.S. under then-President Donald Trump left in 2018.

At the start of the meeting, Russia's U.N. Ambassador Vassily Nebenzia accused Britain, which hold the council presidency, of seeking to hold "an openly politicized show" by inviting Ukraine to take part in the meeting when it is not part of the JCPOA. He demanded a procedural vote on its participation.

deputy ambassador U.S. Robert Wood countered, accusing both Iran and Russia of participating in the transfer of drones used in Ukraine without prior Security Council approval in violation of the 2015 resolution

"This is a matter of life or death for the Ukrainian people," Wood said. "It would be unconscionable to deny Ukraine the opportunity to speak at this meeting when it is experiencing the devastating effects of Iran's violation of resolution 2231 firsthand.'

Britain's U.N. Ambassador Barbara Woodward, who was chairing the council meeting, then called for a vote on whether Ukraine could participate. Twelve members voted "ves," while China and Russia voted "no" and Mozambique abstained.

The United States, Britain, France and Ukraine have urged U.N. Secretary-General Antonio Guterres to send investigators to Ukraine to examine debris from drones used in Russia's attacks, insisting that resolution 2231 gives him a mandate to open an investigation.

Russia insists he has no such authority and Nebenzia warned the U.N. Secretariat against taking any such action.

Iran's U.N. Ambassador Amir Saeid Iravani added that any U.N. findings "based on such illegal activities is null and void."

U.N. political chief Rosemary DiCarlo said in her briefing to the council that France, Germany, Ukraine, the U.K. and U.S. had written letters concerning alleged transfers of drones from Iran to Russia and had provided photographs and their analyses of the recovered drones.

"The Secretariat continues to examine the available information," DiCarlo said, giving no indication of when or if a U.N. investigation would take place. Ukraine's U.N. Ambassador European Union Ambassador Olof Skoog told the council the EU compromise text is still on the table "as a potential point of departure for any renewed effort to bring the JCPOA back on track."

Russian cruise missile attack on Ukraine city of Lviv kills 6 people and injures dozens

LVIV, Jul 7 (Agencies): Russia fired cruise missiles Thursday at a western Ukraine city far from the front line of the war, killing at least six people in an apartment building in what officials said was the heaviest attack on civilian areas of Lviv since the Kremlin's forces invaded the country last year.

Emergency crews with search dogs went through the rubble of the building after the nighttime attack destroyed the roof and the top two floors. At least 36 people were injured, according to authorities.

The youngest of the people who died was 21 years old and the oldest was a woman of 95, Lviv province governor Maksym Kozytskyi said. "This woman survived the Second World War, but unfortunately she didn't survive" Russia's full-scale invasion of Ukraine, Kozytskyi said.

Debris and wrecked parked cars lined the street outside the building, which overlooks a small neighborhood park with swings and other playground equipment.

Lviv Mayor Andriy Sadovyi said the body of a woman was pulled from the rubble late Thursday, bringing the death toll to six. Kozytskyi said seven survivors were rescued from wreckage and a total of 14 people hospitalized. Sadovyi said around 60 apartments and 50 cars in the area of the strike were damaged. He announced two days of official mourning.

U.S. Ambassador to Ukraine Bridget Brink described the attack as "vicious." "Russia's repeated attacks on civilians are absolutely horrifying," she tweeted. Ukraine's air force reported it intercepted seven of the 10 Kalibr cruise missiles that Russia fired from the Black Sea toward the Lviv region and its namesake city - more than 800 kilometers (500 miles) away - around 1 a.m. Thursday.

The Kremlin's forces have repeatedly hit civilian areas during the war, though Russian officials say they choose only targets of military value.

Lviv is near the western border with Poland and is more than 500 kilometers (300 miles) from Kyiv and 700 kilometers (425 miles) from the frontline southern Ukraine region of Kherson; Kyiv's counteroffensive to dislodge Russian forces in southern and eastern Ukraine is in its early stages.

Sadovyi, the mayor, addressed residents in a video message, saying the attack was the largest on Lviv's civilian infrastructure since the beginning of last year's invasion.

Lviv resident Ganna Fedorenko suffered injuries to her face, where an adhesive plaster on her cheek had turned red with blood. She held her hands crossed on her chest as she reacted to the attack.

"Russians are hitting us. That's how they love us. I'm sorry for those people who were killed. They were young. So sorry for them," she said. "This is terrible. They hit civilians."

The Ministry of Internal Affairs said 64 people had to leave their homes.

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy promised "a response to the enemy. A tangible one."

He went later Thursday on an official trip to Bulgaria at the invitation of its new pro-Western government, with talks about weapon supplies and Ukraine's NATO membership on the agenda.

Ukrainian air force updates about the missiles' course during the night showed they flew to the Kyiv region first, then turned west toward Lviv. Russia often changes the route of their missiles and drones to find weak spots in Ukraine's air defenses.

In the early days of the war, Lviv served as a main transit point for millions of refugees from different parts of the country that crossed the border to Europe. Hundreds of thousands of Ukrainians from the east and south remained in the calmer and safer Lviv.

Like the rest of the country, Lviv suffered power outages when Russia fired hundreds missiles over the winter, aiming to destroy Ukraine's energy system. However, the attacks in the city were not as frequent as in the capital Kyiv, and Thursday's strike was a deep shock for many in the city.

Ukrainians shared messages of support on social media for Lviv residents.

Six killed in clashes in Rohingya camps in Bangladesh after ICC prosecutor visit

BANGLADESH, Jul 7 (Agencies): Six Rohingya people were killed in Bangladesh refugee camp clashes that broke out hours after an International Criminal Court prosecutor visited the settlements to gather testimony, police said Friday.

Bangladesh is home to around a million ethnic Rohingya people, most of whom fled a 2017 military crackdown in neighbouring Myanmar that is now subject to a genocide probe at the UN court.

This week's violence was the latest in a series of deadly clashes between the Arakan Rohingya Salvation Army (ARSA) and the Rohingya Solidarity Organisation (RSO), two rival insurgent groups operating in the camps.

Faruq Ahmed, a spokesman for the Armed Police Battalion that looks after security in the refugee camps, told AFP that five people had been shot dead in a gunfight before dawn on Friday.

"All five who were killed in the gunfight are members of ARSA including a commander," he said, adding that security had been stepped up in the camps as a result.

Ahmed said that the violence came hours after the murder of Ebadullah, a refugee community leader, apparently at the hands of ARSA members. Local daily Prothom Alo said Ebadullah, 27, had been marshalling refugees to meet with ICC prosecutor Karim A.A. Khan, who visited the camps on Thursday afternoon to record statements from witnesses to the 2017 crackdown in Myanmar. The insurgent group did not immediately comment on the killings, but its members have been accused of targeting Rohingya civic leaders who challenge its authority.

Its leader, Ataullah Abu Ammar Jununi, was last year charged in absentia with the murder of popular peace activist Mohib Ullah in 2021. Mohib Ullah had regularly spoken out against ARSA's activities in the camps.

Jununi and other key ARSA leaders are also accused of murdering a senior Bangladeshi intelligence officer last November.

The murder prompted security forces in January to evict a makeshift settlement on the Myanmar border that ARSA had allegedly used as a staging post for methamphetamine trafficking to fund its operations. Dozens have been killed in Rohingya camp clashes so far this year, including women and children. Funding cuts forced the United Nations food agency to cut rations to refugee settlements twice in recent months, with aid workers warning that the move would likely worsen the already precarious security situation in the camps. Bangladesh and Myanmar have renewed efforts to begin repatriating Rohingya refugees to their homeland, where the stateless minority have been subject to decades of persecution and are denied citizenship.

Having 'tough conversations' with China better than no talks: New Zealand PM

WELLINGTON, Jul 7 (Agencies): Prime Minister Chris Hipkins said on Friday (local time) that New Zealand will require continued engagement with China, its largest trading partner, but would disagree with Beijing in areas where it challenges New Zealand's national interests.

New Zealand has long been seen as a moderate or even absent voice on China in the Five Eyes intelligencesharing alliance, which includes the US and allies, and is carefully managing its relationship with China amid the strategic rivalry between Beijing and Washington.

"A strong, mature and complex relationship (with China) means we will have those tough conversations... but I think it's better to be talking than not,'

Hipkins said in a speech at the New Zealand Institute of International Affairs. New Zealand will continue to disagree with China on several issues, including human rights, but the path of engagement will be "open and honest", he said.

The speech comes about a week after Hipkins' six-day visit to China, which included meetings with Xi Jinping, where the Chinese President said Beijing had always treated New Zealand as a "friend and partner".

Hipkins said New Zealand must ensure greater economic resilience across its trade markets in a time of global uncertainty, adding its independent foreign policy did not mean a neutral stance.

"As a country, we may be small, but we are not bystanders. We chart our own course, with decisions that are in our national interest," Hipkins said, though he said any decision will not be "a radical departure" in the country's foreign policy.

Hipkins said the US has been pivotal to maintain the system of international rules that helps keep New Zealand's interests safe, and he will continue to work closely with Washington.

Sensex, Nifty trade flat amid weak global trends

In global markets, stocks in Hong Kong, Japan and Australia declined following overnight losses in US equities

MUMBAI, Jul 7 (Agencies): Benchmark stock indices Sensex and Nifty traded flat in early trade on Friday due to profit-taking in financials and IT shares amid weak global cues.

The 30-share BSE Sensex opened lower and fell further by 294 points to hit a low of 65,785.64 in early trade.

The BSE barometer was trading at 65,767.85, down by 17.79 points or 0.03 per cent over the last close, at 9.40 AM. The broader Nifty of the National Stock Exchange was marginally up 1.25 points or 0.01 per cent at 19,498.55. It moved between 19,499.55 and 19,421.60 in early trade. Among Sensex stocks, Nestle, IndusInd Bank, PowerGrid, ICICI Bank, Bajaj Finance, Kotak bank, HCL Tech, HDFC Bank, Infosys and Tech Mahindra declined due to profit-taking after a record rally.

Titan, M&M, Maruti, Reliance, Sun Pharma, NTPC and Tata Steel were among major gainers, providing support to the benchmark index.

In global markets, stocks in Hong Kong, Japan and Australia declined following overnight losses in US equities as reports suggested the US job market remains much more resilient than expected.

As a sturdy labour market keeps the economy out of a long-feared recession, it could also push the US Federal Reserve to keep interest rates higher for longer in its campaign to defeat high inflation.

"It would be difficult for this rally to sustain since the global market construct is turning unfavourable with major weakness in the developed markets and rising bond yields," V K Vijayakumar, Chief Investment Strategist at Geojit Financial Services said. Global oil benchmark Brent crude climbed 0.25 per cent to USD 76.70 a barrel.

Defying a weak trend in the global markets, the Sensex climbed 339.60 points or 0.52 per cent to settle at an all-time closing high of 65,785.64 on Thursday. The NSE Nifty rallied 98.80 points or 0.51 per cent to end at a record high of 19,497.30.

Foreign Institutional Investors (FIIs) continued their buying activity as they bought equities worth Rs 2,641.05 crore on Thursday, according to exchange data.

How to prevent fungal infections during monsoon?

Fungal and bacterial infections are the most common cases of skin diseases that rise during the monsoon.

NEW DELHI, Jul 7 (Agencies): As much as the monsoon rains provide respite after the hot months, a high humidity levels number of skin diseases

Some of the most common skin diseases are fungal infections. bacterial infections, chickenpox, herpes and eczema. Of these, fungal and bacterial infections are the most common cases.

Dr Vichitra Sharma, a dermatologist at Amrita Hospital, told IndiaToday.in that there are various cases of fungal infections that are treated during the monsoon season and are treated accordingly, depending on the body part where the infection is diagnosed.

Tinea cruris: Also called jock itch or ringworm in the skin of the genitals, inner thighs and buttocks.

Tinea corporis: Fungal infection in the body caused by dermatophytes (a type of fungus).

Tinea pedis: Fungal infection of the foot or Athlete's foot.

The common type of bacterial infection that occurs in the rainy season is Folliculitis, "Don't apply stewhich is a common skin condition that happens when hair follicles become inflamed. caused by bacteria. HOW TO PREVENT FUNGAL INFEC-TIONS? "Fungus thrives on moisture and humidity is a good medium for it. You should wear

said that you should change your clothes frequently as various parts of the body like the armpits, under breasts, inner thighs and behind the knees sweat a lot."If you do have a fungal infection, don't scratch the area. The infection can spread to your nails. You can get onychomycosis, which is a fungal infection in the nails," added Dr Sharma, sharing that you should keep your nails trimmed in the monsoon.

In that case, avoid creams at all costs and consult a doctor," said Dr Sharma. People who have diabetes or have chronic kidney disease or renal disease must go to a dermatologist as many medications consumed as part of their treatment can reduce the efficacy of the antifungal creams. "People who take a lot of gastritis medicine like antiacid shouldn't also take antifungal creams on their own as it will lower the efficacy. Share this information with your dermatologist who will give you treatment accordingly," said

Dr Sharma. Here are other preventive measures to avoid fungal infections. When you wash your hair, don't tie it immediately. Let them air dry and then tie them.

"Don't apply hair oil or body oil if you have a tendency of getting infections. You can instead use a moisturising cream," said Dr Sharma.

Sometimes, steroids change the whole clinical picture of the skin disease and modify it. Therefore, avoid overthe-counter medical creams at all. "Even after long treatment, they keep coming back. Conditions like Topical Steroid Damaged/Dependent Face (TSDF) which involves stretch marks, thinning of the skin, sensitivity to the sun can occur," as per the expert.

If you're on antifungal treatment, do not stop it once the infection has gone, suggested Dr Sharma.

"The treatment has a long course. Once you get better, that doesn't mean the infection is treated. Sometimes, the infection is so deep that the infection can come back and the relapsed infection becomes difficult to treat," she said.

Russian energy giant Rosneft appoints first Indian on its board

NEW DELHI, Jul 7 (Agencies): Russian energy giant Rosneft has appointed a former Indian Oil Corporation (IOC) director to its board in signs it may be looking at boosting trade links with India.

G K Satish, who retired as director for business development at IOC in 2021, is one of the three new faces appointed to the 11-strong board of directors of Rosneft, according to a statement issued by the Russian firm.

Satish, 62, is the first Indian to be appointed to the board of Rosneft. Rosneft has partnerships with Satish's former company in oil and gas fields in Russia. It also sells crude oil to IOC and other Indian firms and has in recent months started shipping naphtha to Gujarat refiners. His appointment assumes significance as Rosneft is now eyeing more deals with Indian firms including the sale of liquefied natural gas (LNG).

Satish, who has deep insight into the Indian oil and gas market and has expertise in petroleum product marketing, petrochemicals, LNG and international trade, is one of the five independent directors on the Rosneft board.

During his stint at the IOC board beginning September 1, 2016, Satish was also chairman of IndianOil Adani Gas Pvt Ltd - the joint venture IOC had formed with Adani Group for retailing CNG and piped cooking gas.

That venture helped Adani Group catapult into city gas and it is now the biggest operator.

Rosneft said its shareholders at the annual general meeting on June 30 elected a new board of directors consisting of 11 members.

Igor I Sechin, a confidant of Russian President Vladimir Putin, continues to be the CEO and chairman of the management board of Rosneft.

Other members appointed include "Govind Kottis Satish, Managing Director, Value Prolific Consulting Services Pvt Ltd (ValPro)," it said.

ValPro is the firm that Satish joined as Managing Director in 2022.

ValPro advises on mergers and acquisitions and investment banking.

Former IOC chairman M A Pathan is on its board of advisor and its top management include former IOC executives.

Russia sells about 2 million barrels per day of crude oil or 100 million tonne on an annualised basis, to Indian firms.

Rosneft has a term deal to sell 6 million tonne a year of crude oil to Satish's former company and is eyeing similar deals with other state-owned refiners including Bharat Petroleum Corporation Ltd (BPCL) and Hindustan Petroleum Corporation Ltd (HPCL).

Rosneft is also a majority owner of Nayara Energy, which operates a 20 million tonne a year refinery at Vadinar in Gujarat and owns over 6,300 petrol pumps in the country.

IOC alongside Bharat PetroResources Ltd (a unit of BPCL) and Oil India Ltd in 2016 bought a 23.9 per cent stake in Rosneft's Vankor oilfield for USD 2.02 billion.

The consortium also took a 29.9 per cent stake in a separate Taas-Yuryakh oilfield in East Siberia for USD 1.12 billion.

IOC is India's largest importer of Russian oil and the only company with a long-term delivery deal in place with Rosneft.

Rosneft board includes representatives from Qatar and the Philippines. "Mohammed Bin Saleh Al-Sada (chairman of the board of trustees of Dohal University of Science and Technology) has been elected Chairman of Rosneft Oil Company Board of Directors," Rosneft said.

MS Dhoni Turns 42: A Look At Career, Accomplishments Of 'Captain Cool'

MS Dhoni, who turned 42 on Friday, has one of the most inspiring journeys in sports history.

NEW DELHI, Jul 7 (Agencies): Legendary Indian wicketkeeper-batter and former Indian skipper MS Dhoni, who led Team India to three major ICC trophies, turned 42 on Friday. Dhoni has one of the most inspiring journeys in sports history. From working as a ticket collector at a railway station, he transformed into India's biggest trophy collector, leading the team to ICC T20 World Cup 2007, ICC Cricket World Cup 2011 and ICC Champions Trophy 2013 as skipper.

He made his international debut in 2004 and made a name for himself as a ferocious hitter of the cricket ball, but mellowed down with time to a finisher who would guide his team to wins with his calculated aggression and amazing tactics.

Coming to his long format career, Dhoni played 90 matches, scoring 4,876 runs at an average of 38.09. He scored six centuries and 33 half-centuries, with the best score of 224. He is the 14th-highest scorer for India in Tests.

As a captain, he led India in 60 Test matches, out of which they won 27 matches, lost 18 and drew 15. With a win percentage of 45.00, he is one of India's most successful skippers across all eras. He led Team India to the number one ranking in ICC Test Rankings. He is also the only Indian skipper to whitewash Australia in the Border-Gavaskar Trophy, doing so in the 2010-11 and 2012-13 series.

Dhoni's strongest format was the ODIs. In 350 ODIs, he scored 10,773 runs at an average of 50.57. He scored 10 centuries and 73 fifties for India, with the best score of 183*. He is India's fifth-highest scorer in ODIs (with Sachin Tendulkar at the top with 18,426 runs). He is also the 11th most successful ODI batter of all time. The fact that he managed to score 10,000-plus runs at an average of over 50 while coming down the order makes his statistics even more astonishing.

He led India in 200 ODI matches, winning 110, losing 74. Five matches were tied while 11 failed to produce a result, he has a win percentage of 55.

With 229 sixes, he is the fifthhighest six-hitter of all time and also has the second-highest sixes by an Indian next to Rohit Sharma (275 sixes). He is also the sixth-fastest player to reach 10,000 ODI runs, doing so in 273 innings

'Mahi', as he is known to the fans, played 98 T20Is for India, scoring 1,617 runs at an average of 37.60, at a strike rate of 126.13. He has two half-centuries in the format, with the best score of 56

He led India in 72 T20Is, winning 41, losing 28, one being tied and two failing to produce results. His win percentage is 56.94.

With the bat, he is the fifthhighest run-getter for India across all formats. In 538 matches, he scored 17,266 runs at an average of 44.96 and a strike rate of over 79. He has scored 16 centuries and 108 fifties across all formats, with the best score of 224.

He has led a team in most matches as a captain in the sport's history. He has led India in 332 matches across all formats, out of which he has won 178, lost 120, six were tied and 15 ended in a draw. His win per#### centage is 53.61.

Coming to wicketkeeping, he has the third-highest number of dismissals, with a total of 829, behind Australia's Adam Gilchrist (905) and South Africa's Mark Boucher (998). With 634 catches, he has the third highest number of catches in international cricket history. His grfeatreflexes also earned him a total of 195 stumpings, the highest by a keeper in cricket history.

Besides guiding India to ICC titles, he has also guided Chennai Super Kings (CSK) to franchise glory in the Indian Premier League (IPL) and the Champions League T20. He has led CSK to five IPL titles in 2010, 2011, 2018, 2021 and 2023. Dhoni has also led CSK to two CLT20 titles in 2010 and 2014. With this, he is not only the most successful captain in franchise cricket as well, but cricket in general.

Dhoni has played 250 IPL matches, mostly for CSK, other than a stint with Rising Pune Supergiant in 2016 to 2017. In these matches, he has scored 5,082 runs at an average of 38.79. He has also scored 24 half-centuries in the tournament. He also has 142 catches and 42 stumpings.

With these astonishing statistics as a middle-order batter and his success as a captain, it is unlikely that India and world cricket, in general, will witness a phenomenon like 'Captain Cool' again.

Wood leaves mark on Marsh's day ascendancy in a match

LEEDS, Jul 7 (Agencies): On another sensational day of Ashes action, the pendulum swinging this way and that, it was difficult to call who had the advantage as England finished Day 1 of the pivotal third Test on 68/3, having bowled Australia out for 263 at Headingley. Today's action had
