PIB Jammu to organize Mini Vartalap tomorrow on New Criminal Laws

Top News Report

JAMMU, June 26: With only a few days left before the newly enacted criminal laws are implemented nationwide, the Press Information Bureau, Jammu, will organize a Mini Vartalap tomorrow (Thursday).

This event, to be held at the Press Club, Jammu, aims to shed light on the significance of the Bharativa Nyaya Sanhita, 2023; Bharativa Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023; and Bharativa Sakshya Adhiniyam, 2023, and create awareness about these legislations.

Drug Trafficking

Drug trafficking remains a significant challenge in India, posing threats to public health, national security, and socio-economic stability. The country's geographical location, porous borders, and diverse socio-economic conditions make it vulnerable to drug smuggling and trafficking activities. This issue is compounded by the global nature of drug networks and the constant evolution of trafficking methods. Understanding the dynamics of drug trafficking in India requires a multifaceted approach that addresses both supplyside and demand-side factors while enhancing law enforcement capabilities and international cooperation.

India's strategic location between major drugproducing countries in South Asia and Southeast Asia makes it a crucial transit route for drug trafficking. Heroin, opium, hashish, and synthetic drugs like methamphetamine are among the most commonly trafficked substances. The trafficking routes often originate from Afghanistan, Pakistan, Myanmar, and Nepal, entering India through its extensive land and maritime borders. Domestic drug production, particularly of cannabis and opium, also contributes to the supply chain.

The illicit drug trade in India is not only a transit route but also a destination market. Increasing urbanization, changing lifestyles, and rising disposable incomes have contributed to a growing domestic demand for drugs. This demand fuels local production and distribution networks, often intertwined with international trafficking routes.

Drug trafficking in India poses numerous challenges. First and foremost is its impact on public health. Substance abuse contributes to a range of health problems, including addiction, overdose deaths, and the spread of infectious diseases like HIV/AIDS through needle sharing. Vulnerable populations such as youth and marginalized communities are particularly at risk.

Secondly, drug trafficking undermines national security. The profits from drug trade often fund criminal organizations and terrorist groups, threatening social stability and the rule of law. The nexus between drug trafficking, organized crime, and terrorism necessitates a coordinated response from law enforcement agencies.

Economically, drug trafficking diverts resources away from legitimate economic activities and undermines governance by fostering corruption and undermining institutions. It also imposes significant costs on healthcare systems and law enforcement agencies, diverting resources that could be allocated elsewhere. The Indian government has adopted various strategies to combat drug trafficking. Legislative measures like the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act provide a legal framework for drug control efforts, including stringent penalties for offenders. Enhanced border security, intelligence sharing among law enforcement agencies, and international cooperation through organizations like INTERPOL and UNODC are also crucial components of India's anti-trafficking strategy. Efforts are also focused on demand reduction through awareness campaigns, rehabilitation programs for drug users, and community-based initiatives aimed at prevention and treatment. Recognizing the importance of a balanced approach, the government encourages partnerships with civil society organizations, non-governmental organizations (NGOs), and the private sector to address the socio-economic factors contributing to drug abuse. Despite these efforts, several challenges persist. Weak enforcement capacities, corruption within law enforcement agencies, and the vast and porous borders continue to facilitate drug trafficking activities. Moreover, the constantly evolving nature of drug trafficking networks necessitates adaptive and innovative responses. Addressing these challenges requires a comprehensive approach that integrates law enforcement with prevention, treatment, and harm reduction measures. Strengthening international cooperation and intelligence sharing is critical to disrupt transnational drug trafficking networks. Investing in community-based rehabilitation and reintegration programs can help mitigate the socio-economic impacts of drug abuse. Furthermore, there is a need for sustained political will, adequate funding, and capacity building for law enforcement agencies to effectively combat drug trafficking. Public awareness campaigns to educate communities about the dangers of drug abuse and the importance of reporting suspicious activities can also play a pivotal role. In conclusion, drug trafficking in India is a complex and multifaceted issue that requires a coordinated response at national, regional, and international levels. By addressing both supply-side and demandside factors while enhancing law enforcement capabilities and fostering international cooperation, India can mitigate the adverse impacts of drug trafficking and work towards a safer and healthier future for its citizens.

A wish-list for Budget: If I were Nirmala Sitharaman

By: Sanjeev Ahluwalia

nion finance minister Nimala Sitharaman is all set to make history. Some may say she has already made history by being the first woman to become finance minister, if one excludes Prime Minister Indira Gandhi who held the finance portfolio in 1969. If all goes well, she will become the first FM to serve for more than six years and 125 days by the end of 2025, smashing Palaniappan Chidambaram's record over two separate spells (2004 to 2008 and 2012 to 2014). For continuous service, the venerable C.D. Deshmukh (1950 to 1956) holds the record of six years and 53 days, which Ms Sitharaman will equal even earlier.

Contrary to popular perception -mainly because of her impish grin when she scores a debating point -- Ms Sitharaman was not the youngest finance minister at age 60 in 2019. That honour belongs to Rajiv Gandhi in 1987 (along with being the PM) at age 43. The second youngest was Pranab Mukherjee at age 47 in 1982, followed by P. Chidambaram at age 51 in 1996.

Every FM yearns for a legacy to be remembered by. This requires substantive action beyond getting there early or hanging in there for long. Ms Sitharaman's first term under Prime Minister Narendra Modi was diligent, free of adverse outcomes but studiously correct as a sipahi (soldier) of the PM -- with apologies to Rajeev Chandrashekhar of the BJP, who claims that privilege.

If I were Nirmala Sitharaman, I would use my time till 2029 to build a legacy – beyond the implementation of 300-day rolling plans or the subsequent high decibel political outreach around relatively mundane outcomes, which generally accompany such budgetary provisions.

The finance ministry flies solo in three significant areas. First, defining the fiscal stance of the government -the fiscal deficit, debt levels and the share of private and public investment at play in the economy. Second, developing an action plan to achieve the associated fiscal and investment metrics. If private investment must increase, relative to public resources, what is the vision for the supporting financial services -- banking, financial institutions, stock markets and insurance services?

Third, the tax policy of the government, which determines who pays for government interventions. All three are highly political decisions.

The FM plays a prime role in aligning government tax revenue to the volume of government expenditure to keep fiscal deficit and debt within norms. At present, public debt is 50 per cent higher and the fiscal deficit more than 25 per cent higher than the norm. Keeping them within the norms means shaping financial outlays towards efficiency enhancing, productive spending, while saying no to political grandstanding based on debt. In short, the FM must draw measurable red lines around the expenditure expectations of her Cabinet colleagues.

Cynics would say such foundational decisions are taken by the Prime Minister's close-knit circle of advisers. Also, how can an FM, who is in Parliament at the behest of the party (via the indirect election route to the Rajya Sabha, as opposed to getting directly elected to the Lok Sabha) do otherwise but play ball with topdown political directives?

The FM can take heart from previous FMs, also in Parliament via the indirect Rajya Sabha route. Arun Jaitley will be remembered for accepting the challenge of living within a low FD target of 4.1 per cent of GDP in 2014-15, down from 4.5

per cent, the previous fiscal, where P. Chidambaram had left it, and for reducing it further to 3.5 per cent by 2017-18. Successfully shepherding the GST regime -- an inherited, albeit much needed, hot potato from the Congress government, was another achievement, but failing to oppose demonetisation - which was a political misadventure -- was not. Dr Manmohan Singh (as PM) braved the wrath of his own party and Left party allies for pushing through the civil nuclear deal with the United States in 2006, paving the way for the close alliances India enjoys today.

Similar opportunities await Ms Sitharaman. Consider, for example, the need for a forward-looking tax policy. Her diligent oversight and evident probity -- she did not fight the 2024 Lok Sabha elections because she could not afford the expenses required to win -- have ensured a smart uptick in Central government tax receipts.

From 6.8 per cent of current GDP in 2019-20, these increased to 9.6 per cent in 2023-24, vastly different from 2019-20 when they reduced from 7.6 per cent in 2014-15. But the underlying tax structure remains distorted, porous, and shallow.

Tax reform requires shunning high nominal rates as substitutes for poor assessment and collection capabilities. Low tax rates, minus exemptions, are preferrable to high nominal rates with lots of exemptions, designed to let favoured taxpayers escape the tax, whilst others get their backs broken. Consider that, thanks to "clever" tax planning, less than 0.6 million families (0.2 per cent of all families) declared a taxable annual income of more than Rs 5 million in 2022-23.

High import tax rates seem necessary to "protect" domestic industry because the RBI keeps the rupee artificially expensive and domestic interest rates high, to forestall an outflow of foreign portfolio investment from the stock market. Keeping the stock market at elevated levels is now a performance metric of the government, much to the glee of the middle class. But an expensive rupee makes exports expensive and uncompetitive whilst incentivising imports, widening the trade deficit, which then needs to be plugged in by higher taxes on imports and more incentives for inflows of foreign investment to plug the adverse external account (trade plus financial flows) -- pulling the economy into a circular, downward trending vortex.

High domestic lending rates, and high domestic bank lending margins compensate for losses from imprudent lending practices at low rates, often under government schemes but serve to constrain domestic investment, counteracted by "viability gap financing subsidies" for the big corporates and interest subsidies for small business.

A five-year macro-economic plan can lead us out of this circular, unstrategic, economic trap. Mandate a Fiscal and Financial Commission (FFC) to integrate the entire financial sector. Chaired by the FM with state government FMs as members working on a consensual basis, it can subsume the GST Council and the quinquennial Finance Commission, whose mandate is already diminished by the comprehensive GST framework. Inter-state allocation of grants could be determined quinquennially but monitored and fine-tuned annually.

Integrating high-level fiscal and financial decision-making under one roof would be a visible ode to Prime Minister Modi's languishing mantra of co-operative federalism. If I were Ms Sitharaman, I would step, a bit out of line, to hit a six.

When Artificial intelligence becomes a part of life?

By: Vijay GarG

he world is growing every day with new technology and advancements in lifestyle enhancements. As we live longer and technology continues its rapid development, we can imagine in the near future when machines will augment our human abilities, help us make better life choices, and become a part of the lifestyle. Our dialogue and digital breadcrumbs will understand our life goals and aspirations, obligations and limitations, and suggest or create a lifestyle according to the best available resources. AI will seamlessly and automatically help us budget and save for different life events, so we can enjoy life's moments more lively.

The variable nature of weather presents inherent challenges which may cause suppliers to rely on traditional energy sources to meet consumer demands. Therefore, AI-driven energy forecasting platforms may hold promise for providing energy suppliers with the data required to respond to fluctuations that may negatively affect operations and to plan accordingly. The term "artificial intelligence" may sound intimidating to some, but it has been in use for decades and its applications are more common than you might imagine.AI powers many programs and services that help us do everyday things such as connecting with friends, using email program, or using a ride-share service.

A major new report on the state of artificial intelligence (AI) has shown data that AI is becoming a part of life already in at least 10% of day-to-day activities. From language generation and molecular medicine to disinformation and algorithmic bias, AI has begun to permeate every aspect of our lives.

The report argues that we are at an inflection point where researchers and governments must think and act carefully to contain the risks AI presents and make the most of its benefits.

When AI is becoming real!

There is remarkable progress made in AI over the past five years. AI is leaving the laboratory and has entered our lives, having a "real-world impact on people, institutions, and culture". Read the news on any given day and you're likely to find multiple stories about some new advancement in technology in AI or some new use of AI.

In the coming decade, I expect that AI will play an increasingly prominent role in the lives of people everywhere. AI-infused services will become more common, and AI will become increasingly embedded in the daily lives of people across the world.

Believe that this will bring with it great economic and social benefits, but that it will also require us to address the many challenges to ensure that the benefits are broadly shared and that people are not marginalised by these new technologies.

In recent years, homeowners have adopted smart home technologies to time, money, and energy.

Many AI technologies have emerged that come equipped with learning and decision-making capabilities in recent years. We can artificial intelligence mimics human intelligence but the output from the data collected and organized will give a better result for the human life upliftment

AI-powered smart home devices can interact and communicate with each other, allowing them to learn human habits or day-to-day life requirements. Data collected by AI smart home technologies predict user behavior and even develop situational awareness. This will allow the user more productive so that day-to-day requirements are well met with the machine learning capabilities . Impact on work & Lifestyle

Rather than promoting the obsolescence of human labor, AI will continue to drive massive innovation that will fuel many existing industries and could have the potential to create many new sectors for growth, ultimately leading to the creation of more jobs.

While AI has made major strides toward replicating the efficacy of human intelligence in executing certain tasks, there are still major limitations. In particular, AI programs are typically only capable of "specialized" intelligence, meaning they can solve only one problem, and execute only one task at a time. Often, they can be rigid, and unable to respond to any changes in input or perform any "thinking" outside of their prescribed programming. There are lots of limitations to AI and programming in machine learning.

AI is likely to have a strong impact on certain sectors in particular: Medical:

The potential benefits of utilising AI in the field of medicine are already being explored. The medical industry has a robust amount of data and produces a huge volume of data that can be utilised to create predictive models related to healthcare. Connected hospitals and rooms also are very helpful for diagnosing medical conditions ,preexisting diseases and giving the doctor a better outcome for the patient and monitoring Automotive:

We're already seeing how AI is impacting the world of transportation and automobiles with the advent of autonomous vehicles and autonomous navigation. Vehicles are becoming more connected and data-driven. This will create more and better output for the efficiency of the vehicle and safety .The user experience in AI will also have a major impact on manufacturing, including within the automotive sector.

E-Commerce: AI will play a pivotal role in e-commerce in the future, in every sector of the industry from user experience to mar-industry from user experience to marketing to fulfilment and distribution. We can expect that moving forward, AI will continue to drive the industry with various system and machine learning capacities, including through the use of chatbots, shopper personalization, image-based targeting advertising, and warehouse and inventory automation.

AI for Energy Management As we move toward an increasingly electric world, more energy will be produced by decentralised, renewable sources. it will be from microgrids, wind farms, solar panels, and batteries. The global transition to renewable energy will need artificial intelligence (AI) technology to manage decentralised grids. AI can balance electricity supply and demand needs in real-time, optimize energy use and storage to reduce rates. Technology governance will be needed to democratize access, encourage innovation and ensure resilient electricity sources.A consistent challenge with renewable energy sources such as wind and solar power is their unreliability. Weather-dependent power sources will often fluctuate in their strength.

This meant that greater precautions could be taken to harness and preserve the energy that was generated. In order to provide these detailed weather reports, the AI system mines a combination of data from local satellite reports, weather stations as well as wind farms in the surrounding area. The algorithms driving the system are trained to identify patterns within these data sets and make predictions based on those data AJKPC has called on the Government of India to intervene and direct the Lieutenant Governor and Chief Secretary of J&K to rescind Circular No. 14, issued by the Jammu and Kashmir General Administration Department on 20 June 2024. The circular appears to protect corrupt and tainted officers while intimidating citizens and the press from speaking out against corruption within government departments.

It is worth noting that Circular No. JK-14 also includes provisions for offering free legal aid to accused officers and seeks to suppress the press by threatening to withdraw government advertisements and cancel the licenses of accreditation of the newspaper that report issue of corrupt officers. India has acted as catalyst in my journey of self-growth, says K-pop sensation Aoora, who, after a successful stint in Bigg Boss, is now eyeing Bollywood

K-pop sensation Aoora's charm is spreading like wildfire in India, especially after his stint in reality show Bigg Boss last year. Many relate to the singer for he embraces India's culture and traditions like his own. Talking to The Tribune, he pours his heart out.

In 2022, Aoora listened to Indian music for the first time, a song called Cham Cham. The rhythm just clicked with him and from there on he started searching for more Indian music. He recounts, "At that time I did not know India had many different languages. But I resonated with all kinds of music that India offers. When I visited India for the first time, the love I received from people here made me feel very warm. So in many ways, India acted as catalyst in my journey of self-growth."

Overcoming challenges As the South Korean singer recently performed live in South India, he recalls his experience as a memorable one, "I have always loved South Indian music and was looking forward to performing there. I am grateful that my first show was a huge success." Besides singing songs in many Indian languages, Aoora is keen to become a Bollywood hero and Shah Rukh Khan is his idol, "I would love to sing and act in Indian films. If there is a good show and I get an opportunity, I would love to explore television too." As for the similarities and differences in Indian and Korean film as well as music industry, Aoora says, "Stress in Korea is much higher. Too much pressure on perfection, but in India there is more freedom." Language no bar

When it comes to singing a song in a different language, Aoora says it is a challenge,

"I translate the lyrics into English and then to Korean. I try to understand the feeling and meaning so that when I sing, I can express it well. I also listen to the song more than 100 times to get the diction correct."

Rest assured Aoora knows the meaning of the viral song Akh Lari Bado-Badi, a reel he made for Instagram!

'All religions teach us how to love'

One of Aoora's many dedicated social media posts about India highlights his visit to the Golden Temple in Amritsar. He also sang holy verses of Sukhmani Sahib in the reel. From a country like South Korea where many practise Christianity or Buddhism, it makes one wonder what makes him croon devotional songs like Raghupati Raghav? He explains, "I do not practise any religion, but I am very spiritual. At the end of the day, we all are humans and all religions teach us how to love."

Amid Row Over "Dark Days Of Emergency", PM's Shoutout For New Lok Sabha Speaker

"I am glad that the Honourable Speaker strongly condemned the Emergency, highlighted the excesses committed during that time," PM Modi said in a post on X.

NEW DELHI, Jun 26 (Agencies): Prime Minister Narendra Modi today praised newlyelected Lok Sabha speaker Om Birla for his condemnation of the Emergency. In his first move after assuming the key post, Mr Birla called for a 2-minute silence to honour those who suffered during the "dark days of emergency".

Mr Birla read out a resolution condemning the Emergency in the Lok Sabha and spoke up against the thengovernment headed by prime minister Indira Gandhi.

The move stirred up a row and the House was adjourned amid an uproar from the Opposition benches. PM Modi though. backed Mr Birla calling the '2 minutes of silence' a wonderful gesture. "I am glad that the Honourable Speaker strongly condemned the Emergency, highlighted the excesses committed during that time and also mentioned the manner in which democracy was strangled.

It was also a wonderful gesture to stand in silence in honour of all those who suffered during those days," the Prime Minister said in a post on X (formerly Twitter).

"The Emergency was imposed 50 years ago but it is important for today's youth to know about it because it remains a fitting example of what happens when the Constitution is trampled over, public opinion is stifled and institutions are destroyed. The happenings during the Emergency exemplified what a dictatorship looks like," he added.

CBI arrests Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal in excise scam case, seeks 5-day custody

NEW DELHI, Jun 26 (Agencies): Compounding troubles for jailed Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal, a trial court in Delhi allowed the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) to arrest him in an excise scam case. Kejriwal was arrested by the agency when he was produced before the court on Wednesday.

The CBI arrested Kejriwal after Special Judge Amitabh Rawat passed the order.

The fresh development came hours before the Supreme Court was scheduled to hear Kejriwal's plea challenging the Delhi High Court's decision to stay the bail granted to him by a lower court.

Considering the new development, Kejriwal on Wednesday, following his arrest, requested the SC to allow him to withdraw the appeal against Delhi HC's interim stay on his bail order and file a fresh plea. The top court has granted the CM liberty to file the substantial appeal.

Sources said the CBI had questioned Kejriwal on Monday in Tihar Jail and recorded his statement on the alleged irregularities in the Delhi liquor policy. On Tuesday, the central agency moved an application before a special court seeking a production warrant for Keiriwal, which was granted.

The Delhi BJP on Wednesday reacted to Kejriwal's arrest and said he was bound to be arrested as the agency had presented incriminating documents against him in court.

The excise policy was formulated under his supervision and a "big scam" was committed, Delhi BJP president Virendra Sachdeva told agency Videos.

Aam Aadmi Party has not responded to the arrest. However the party had earlier accused the CBI of "conspiring to register a fake case" against their leader.

AAP leader Sanjay Singh said the Centre is conspiring to foist false cases against Kejriwal in a bid to keep him in jail.

Whole system trying to ensure Delhi CM doesn't get bail, this is dictatorship: Sunita Kejriwal

In a post on X in Hindi, Sunita said her husband got bail on June 20 in the excise policy-linked money laundering case and the Enforcement Directorate (ED) immediately got a stay.

NEW DELHI, Jun 26 (Agencies): Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal's wife Sunita on Wednesday alleged the whole system was trying to ensure that her husband does not come out of jail and stressed that all this is akin to "dictatorship" and "emergency".

The Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) said that when there was a possibility of Kejriwal getting bail from the Supreme Court in a money laundering case, the BJP panicked and got him arrested in a "fake case" by the CBI.

The Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) on Wednesday formally the CBI made him an accused. And today he was arrested. The whole system is trying to ensure that the man does not come out of arrest. "The dictator crossed all limits of cruelty!! Today when there was every possibility of Chief Minister @ArvindKejriwal getting bail, the BJP went into panic mode and got Kejriwal arrested by the CBI in a fake case. "The CBI took Kejriwal ji to Rouse Avenue Court where his blood sugar level dropped very low. Dictator, no matter how much oppression you inflict, Kejriwal will neither bow down nor break," it said in a post on X in Hindi.

Kejriwal has been in prison since April 1 in connection with the excise policy-linked money laundering case being probed by the ED. On May 10, the Supreme Court had granted interim bail to Kejriwal for 21 days to campaign for the Lok Sabha elections.

He returned to prison on June 2.

The Delhi Excise Policy 2021-22 was withdrawn by the Kejriwal government in July 2022 after Lieutenant Governor V K Saxena recommended a CBI probe into alleged irregularities in its formulation and implementation.

"Fantastic Lapse": Supreme Court Raps Delhi, Infra Body Over Tree Cutting In Ridge Area

NEW DELHI, Jun 26 (Agencies): Making its intention of getting to the root of the matter clear, the Supreme Court on Wednesday rapped not only the Delhi Development Authority but also the Delhi government for illegal tree cutting in the ridge area, which is an extension of the Aravallis. Ordering criminal action against the DDA officials responsible for the lapse, the court said there had been "a fantastic lapse" on the part of the Delhi government, under whom the Tree Authority is supposed to function.

While the allegation is that 1,100 trees have been cut in the area, the DDA has said that the number is 630 and the felling was done for the widening of a road.

The court also used a Sherlock Holmes reference and wondered why "the dog didn't bark" when the timber from the felled trees was taken away, hinting that there may be some inside involvement. Continuing from the last hearing where the court had asked whether Delhi Lieutenant Governor VK Saxena had ordered the cutting of the trees, the court said the DDA vice-chairman should come to it with clean hands, adding "there cannot be any cover-up, even if something has been done by the highest authority". The court's crackdown and strong comments come at a time when Delhi and the National heatwave. Pollution, especially in the winter, has also been a problem over the past few years. Picking up where they had left during the last hearing on Monday, a special bench of Justices Abhay Oka and Ujjal Bhuyan asked the DDA whether it had been able to locate a record of the Lieutenant Governor (LG's) visit to the area on February 3. Senior Advocate Maninder

Singh, appearing for the authority, said officials are still trying to locate the documents, prompting a sharp response from the bench.

"This is absolute recklessness on your part. You cannot find a simple document. Nothing has been done and no meeting of the officers has been called. I really hope the (DDA) Vice Chairman is taking the matter seriously. We have the things are being done," Justice Oka fumed. When Mr Singh said the LG had visited a hospital and not the site, Justice Oka added, "When the LG visited, was it not the responsibility of DDA to look into the visit? You are only protecting the higher officer and shifting the blame to the lower officers, isn't this true?" As the hearing progressed, Mr Singh admitted that there had been some loopholes, but the bench was in no mood to relent. "This is no loophole. DDA has to be the first offender here. This is an absolutely brazen act without thinking about protecting the environment," Justice Oka said.

Pune Doctor, His Teenage Daughter Test Positive For Zika Virus Infection

PUNE, Jun 26 (Agencies): A 46-year-old doctor and his teenage daughter have tested positive for Zika virus infection in Pune city of Maharashtra, but their health condition is stable, an official said today.

The man recently developed symptoms like fever and rashes, following which he was admitted to a private hospital. The medical facility sent his blood samples to the citybased National Institute of Virology (NIV) for analysis. On June 21, his reports confirmed that he tested positive for Zika virus infection, a health official of the Pune Municipal Corporation (PMC) said.

The doctor is a resident of Erandwane area of the city, he said.

"After he tested positive, the blood samples of his five family members were collected and sent for analysis, and it was found that his 15-year-old daughter was also positive for the infection," the official added. The Zika virus disease is transmitted through the bite of an infected Aedes mosquito, which is also known to transmit infections like dengue and chikungunya. The virus was first identified in Uganda in 1947. After these two cases were reported in the city, the PMC's health department has started

conducting surveillance,

Although no other suspected cases have been found in the area, the authorities have started taking precautionary steps like fogging and fumigation to curb the breeding of mosquitoes, he said.

the official said.

"The mosquito samples have been collected by the state health department. We have started the general public awareness in the area and given instructions to monitor the health of pregnant women in the area. Zika does not lead to serious complications in general, but in case a pregnant woman gets infected, it may cause microcephaly in the foetus," he said.

Bombay High Court Dismisses Students' Petition Against College's Hijab Ban

MUMBAI, Jun 26 (Agencies): The Bombay High Court on Wednesday dismissed the plea filed by women students challenging the ban on wearing hijab, niqab, burkha, stole, cap, etc., on campus by a Mumbai college.

A division bench of Justices A S Chandurkar and Rajesh Patil of Bombay HC refused to interfere in the decision taken by a Mumbai city-based college and dismissed a petition filed by nine female students challenging the college authorities' decision.

Capital Region are sizzling under a record

Earlier in July, the students who have been studying in the second and third year of a science degree course moved against the directive issued by the Chembur Trombay Education Society's NG Acharya and DK Marathe College imposing a dress code barring the students from wearing hijab, niqab, burkha, stole, cap, etc. inside the premises.

The petitioners claimed such a directive was against their fundamental rights to practice their religion, right to privacy, and right to choice. The plea termed the college's action as

"arbitrary, unreasonable, bad-in-law and perverse".

Advocate Altaf Khan, representing the petitioners, distinguished this case from the Karnataka High Court judgment on the hijab ban in junior colleges, noting that this case concerns senior college students who have a dress code but not a uniform. Khan argued that the dress code was imposed via WhatsApp without any legal authority, contrasting it with the Karnataka case where a pre-existing uniform policy was enforced.

He claimed the dress code violates the petitioners' right to choice, bodily integrity, and autonomy.

Earlier, the college authorities claimed that the decision was merely a disciplinary one and was not against the Muslim community. Senior counsel Anil Anturkar, appearing for the college management, said the dress code was for all students belonging to every religion and caste.

The girls, however, claimed in their plea that such a directive was "nothing but colourable exercise of power".

Suspected Houthi attack targets a ship in the Gulf of Aden, while Iraq-claimed attack targets Eilat

The rebels have targeted more than 60 specific vessels by firing off missiles and drones in their campaign that has killed a total of four sailors.

DUBAI, Jun 26 (Agencies): Suspected attacks by Yemen's Houthi rebels early Wednesday targeted a ship in the Gulf of Aden, while a separate attack claimed by Iraqi militants allied with the rebels targeted the southern Israeli port city of Eilat, authorities said.

The attacks follow the departure of the USS Dwight D. Eisenhower after an eightmonth deployment in which the aircraft carrier led the American response to the Houthi assaults. Those attacks have reduced shipping drastically through the route crucial to Asian, Middle East and European markets in a campaign the Houthis say will continue as long as the Israel-Hamas war rages in the Gaza Strip.

Meanwhile, the Houthis faced allegations they seized commercial aircraft that brought back pilgrims from the Hajj amid a widening economic dispute between the rebels and the country's exiled government.

The ship attack happened off the coast of Aden, the British military's United Kingdom Maritime Trade Operations center said.

The captain "of a merchant vessel reported a missile impacted the water in close proximity to the vessel," the UKMTO said. "The crew are reported safe and the vessel is proceeding to its next port of call."

The UKMTO did not say if the ship had been damaged.

Meanwhile, the Israeli military said early Wednesday that a drone "fell off the coast of Eilat." The military activated air raid sirens in the area

The Houthis have targeted Eilat before with drones and missiles. However, an Iranianbacked umbrella group known as the Islamic Resistance in Iraq claimed the attack. That group recently began what it and the Houthis describe as joint operations over the Israel-Hamas war.

The Houthis did not immediately claim the ship attack. However, it can take the rebels hours or even days before they acknowledge their assaults.

The rebels have targeted more than 60 specific vessels by firing off missiles and drones in their campaign that has killed a total of four sailors. They seized one vessel and sunk two since November. A U.S.-led airstrike campaign has targeted the Houthis since January, with a series of strikes on May 30 killing at least 16 people and wounding 42 others, the rebels say.

The Houthis have maintained that their attacks target ships linked to Israel, the United States until the return of the planes hijacked by the terrorist Houthi militia."

The Houthis did not immediately acknowledge the seizure. However, at least two Airbus A320s associated with Yemenia appeared to be stuck on the ground in Sanaa without explanation, according to flighttracking data.

The Houthis and Yemen's exiled government have been increasingly at odds in recent months over economic issues, even after a long push by a Saudi-led coalition backing the government to end the country's war.

The Houthis have faced issues with having enough currency to support the economy in areas they hold — something signaled by their move to introduce a new coin into the Yemeni currency, the riyal. Yemen's exiled government in Aden and other nations criticized the move, saying the Houthis are turning to counterfeiting.

Aden authorities have demanded all banks move their headquarters there as a means to stop the worst slide ever in the rival's value and re-exert their control over the economy. Aden also is pushing for other businesses to leave Sanaa.

Meanwhile, the Houthis have taken captive local Yemeni employees of the United Nations, aid groups and the former U.S. Embassy in Sanaa as part of a major crackdown. Following a pattern of their Iranian backers, the Houthis have aired repeated videos of the captives that appear to be taken under duress, alleging they are spies based in some cases on emails praising their work helping Yemenis.

According to the Chhipa Welfare Association, a non-profit welfare organization in Pakistan, three of the latest victims appear to be drug addicts, as per agency.

Despite efforts by the organization's volunteers, none of the 22 bodies have been identified

A spokesperson of the Chhipa Welfare Association said in a statement on Tuesday, that volunteers found five more bodies in different areas of Karachi on Tuesday. "Three of them were drugs after over a dozen unidentified persons were found dead in different areas of Karachi. Meanwhile. In Karachi a senior citizen was brutally assaulted by a group of drug users after confronting them about openly using drugs outside his residence, agency reported.

According to details, the victim attempted to stop the youths from engaging in drug activity in front of his home, which provoked the youths, resulting in severe violence against the elderly man.

This incident highlights the rising issue of drug abuse in Pakistan, particularly the increasing use of Ice, also known as crystal methamphetamine, in recent years. Crystal meth is a highly addictive and potent stimulant that can have devastating effects on individuals and society as a whole. The usage of ice in Pakistan has been particularly prevalent among the younger generation.

The drug is often seen as a party drug that can enhance energy, alertness, and confidence, making it appealing to young people looking for a quick high. The ease of access to ice, as well as its relatively low cost compared to other drugs, has contributed to its popularity among young Pakistanis.

Suspected North Korean hypersonic missile exploded, South Korea says

The Joint Chiefs of Staff suspected the weapon is a solid-fueled hypersonic missile.

SEOUL, Jun 26 (Agencies): A suspected hypersonic mismissile tests. Seoul officials said the upcoming South Korea-U.S.-Japan training is meant to strengthen the three countries' response capabilities against North Korea's evolving nuclear threats at a time when the North is advancing its military partnerships with Russia. During a summit in Pyongyang last week, North Korean leader Kim Jong Un and Russian President Vladimir Putin signed a deal requiring each country to provide aid if attacked and vowed to boost other cooperation. Observers say the accord represents the strongest connection between the two countries since the end of the Cold War. The United States and its partners believe North Korea has been providing Russia with much-needed conventional arms for its war in Ukraine in return for military and economic assistance. North Korea's reported missile launch is its first weapons demonstrations since Kim Jong Un on May 30 supervised the firing of nuclear-capable multiple rocket launchers to simulate a preemptive attack on South Korea. The drill came days after North Korea's attempt to put its second spy satellite into orbit ended in failure, with its rocket carrying that satellite exploding in mid-air soon after liftoff. Since 2022, North Korea has sharply increased the pace of weapons tests to increase its nuclear attack capabilities to cope with what it calls an deepening U.S. military threat. Foreign experts say North Korea eventually aims to use its larger nuclear arsenal to wrest greater concessions from the U.S. when diplomacy resumes.

Woman Who Killed 3 Daughters Jailed For 18 Years In New Zealand

WELLINGTON, Jun 26 (Agencies): A New Zealand judge on Wednesday sentenced a woman to 18 years imprisonment for murdering her three young daughters in 2021.

Lauren Dickason will begin her sentence at a mental health hospital in the custody of the state, a court official at Christchurch High Court told AFP, for the triple killings.

In a statement to local media after her sentencing, Dickason said she had "failed" her children and her husband, who has since moved back to South Africa.

"I take responsibility for taking our three beautiful girls from this world," she said

"I would like to take this opportunity to convey the deepest and most sincere remorse for the extreme pain and hurt caused to my children and my family by my actions.'

Justice Cameron Mander did not impose a minimum non-parole period in sentencing Dickason, who escaped life imprisonment which is the usual penalty for murder in New Zealand

Dickason was found guilty last August on three counts of murder having smothered her two-year-old twins Maya and Karla and first daughter Liane, six.

The killings took place in September 2021 at their home in Timaru while her husband was out to dinner with colleagues. He found the bodies of his children when he returned home.

The family had moved to New Zealand from South Africa just weeks before.

During last year's trial, Dickason admitted killing the girls but had argued a defence of insanity and infanticide, triggered by the stress of the move.

Under New Zealand law, infanticide is a defence for a mother who causes the death of her child when, "at the time of the offence, the balance of her mind was disturbed".

Dickason's lawyer had argued that a mental health unit was the most appropriate place for her, according to local media reports.

sile launched by North Korea exploded in flight on Wednesday, South Korea's military said, a development that comes as North Korea is protesting the regional deployment of a U.S. aircraft carrier for a trilateral military drill with South Korea and Japan.

South Korea's Joint Chiefs of Staff said in a statement that North Korea launched a ballistic missile from its capital region around 5:30 a.m. on Wednesday. It said the missile was fired toward the North's eastern waters, but the launch ended in failure.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff later told South Korean journalists that the missile blew up as it flew over the waters of the North's eastern coastal Wonsan city. It said the fragments of the missile were scattered in the waters, up to 250 kilometers (155 miles) away from the launch site. No damages were immediately reported.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff suspected the weapon is a solidfueled hypersonic missile. It said Wednesday's launch spewed larger amounts of smoke than normal launches because of a possible engine fault. It said the test was probably aimed to improve the capacity of a hypersonic weapons system.

The contents of the background briefing was shared with foreign media.

The U.S. Indo-Pacific Command said it condemns the North's launch though it didn't pose an immediate threat to the U.S. territory or its allies. It said the U.S. commitments to the defense of South Korea and Japan "remain ironclad." Japan's Defense Ministry said earlier Wednesday that it also detected a suspected ballistic missile launch by North Korea. Since 2021, North Korea has performed a series of hypersonic missile tests in an apparent bid to penetrate its rivals' missile defense shields. But foreign experts question if North Korean hypersonic vehicles have proved their desired speed and maneuverability during testflights. In recent years, North Korea has also been pushing to develop more weapons with solid propellants, Such propellants make launches harder to detect than liquid-propellant missiles, which must be fueled before liftoff.

The North's reported launch also came as the rival Koreas are engaged in Cold War-style, psychological campaigns such as balloon flying and loudspeaker broadcasts in past weeks.

South Korea said Tuesday night that North Korea floated huge balloons carrying trash across the border for a second consecutive day. South Korean media reported Wednesday that about 100 North Korean balloons with bags of waste papers eventually fell on South Korean territory.

North Korea has conducted a series of trash-carrying balloon launches toward South Korea since late May in what it calls a tit-for-tat response to South Korean activists flying political leaflets via their own balloons. On June 9. South Korea briefly restarted propaganda broadcasts from its border loudspeakers for the first time in years in response. South Korea's military said Monday said it was ready to turn on its loudspeakers again. The USS Theodore Roosevelt arrived in South Korea on Saturday and South Korean President Yoon Suk Yeol boarded the carrier on Tuesday - the first sitting South Korean president to board a U.S. aircraft carrier

Yoon told American and South Korean troops on the carrier that their countries' alliance is the world's greatest and can defeat any enemy. He said the U.S. carrier is to leave Wednesday for the South Korea-U.S.-Japan drill, dubbed "Freedom Edge." The training is aimed at sharpening the countries' combined response in various areas of operation, including air, sea and cyberspace.

North Korea's vice defense minister, Kim Kang II, on Monday called the U.S. aircraft carrier's deployment "reckless" and "dangerous." North Korea has previously called major U.S.-South Korean drills invasion rehearsals and reacted with RS PURA, June 26: Following a resounding victory in the recent Lok Sabha elections, the Jammu & Kashmir National Conference (JKNC) is intensifying its efforts in preparation for the upcoming State Assembly elections. As part of this initiative, a day-long district-wise convention was held at the border village Dewangarh R.S Pura.

The convention was graced by the presence of Rattan Lal Gupta, Provincial President of JKNC, as the Chief Guest. Other notable attendees included Babu Rampal Central Zone President and former Minister; Sheikh Bashir Ahmed, Provincial Secretary of JKNC; Vijay Lochan, Chairman JKNC SC Cell; and Pardeep Bali Provincial Secretary, among others.

At the beginning of the convention, Naresh Bittu, District President of Jammu Rural B, JKNC, who organized today's convention, apprised senior party functionaries regarding significant issues faced by residents in border areas. These included the non-availability of basic amenities, unemployment, the lack of recruitment drives in belt forces, the dilapidated condition of bunkers, insufficient irrigation facilities for farmers, irregular power and water supply, and the worsts state of local health centers/ dispensaries.

In his address, Rattan Lal Gupta criticized the BJP Government for bringing immense miseries to the people residing in border areas through unfulfilled promises and inaction. He highlighted the Central Government's failure to address the needs of border dwellers, particularly the farming community, which relies heavily on consistent power supply for irrigation and MSP of their products.

Gupta asserted that there is gross resentment among people against the saffron party, which has miserably failed to meet their expectations in last 10 years. He pointed out the drastic decline in BJP's vote share from 46.2% to 24.36% in the recent Lok Sabha elections in Jammu and Kashmir, indicating a clear shift in public sentiment due to anti people policies and misgovernance. "Today, people mostly youth are leaving BJP and moving towards the National Conference with so many hopes for a brighter future. The people of Jammu and Kashmir are seeking change and are increasingly supporting the National Conference, which aligns more closely with their needs and aspirations," he added. Rattan Lal Gupta assured the people of Border area of RS Pura that the National Conference, with the support of the people of Jammu and Kashmir, will once again form its own government, promising that all their burning issues would be resolved as a priority including the unemployment and regularization of Daily wagers.

Babu Rampal, senior NC leader and former minister accused present dispensation of adopting a discriminatory approach towards the border youth with no employment policy or any kind of development project. He said that the Central government promised to raise the Border Battalion but as usual the corrupt government has cancelled the results of 2 Border Battalions of Jammu and Kashmir Police Border Battalion terming an example of government's apathy. He said that finding their future bleak, these unemployed youth are passing through a phase of utter frustration and despair. Sheikh Bashir Ahmed, Provincial Secretary NC, urged the people to sustain the momentum gained from the recent polls and to extend their support in the upcoming Assembly elections. He emphasized that with their backing, the National Conference is committed to addressing these issues and forming the next government in Jammu and Kashmir, dedicated to the welfare and progress of its people.

Vijay Lochan, Chairman SC Cell of National Conference and Pardeep Bali Provincial Secretary, in his address, expressed concern over weaker sections not getting rights, rising unemployment and complete lack of avenues. They said that only NC has will and determination to ensure rights and justice to the weaker sections as there are umpteen such examples where NC leadership has taken daring steps to provide fair deal to the poor strata and deprived people with 'land to tillers' being the best step in this direction by party's founder late Sheikh Mohammed Abdullah.

Bimla Luthra former MLA and State Vice President Women Wing emphasized that only National Conference raised the burning issues of the women folk and always try to give more and more empowerment to the women folk.

guidance for next five years," he said, adding that Birla's "sweet smile" keeps the entire Lok Sabha happy.

Congratulating Birla on his election, Gandhi said he hoped the opposition would be allowed to raise the voice of people in the House

He also said the opposition wanted the House to function "often and well" and added that it was very important that cooperation happens with trust.

"This House represents the voice of people of India... Of course the government has political power, but the opposition also represents the voice of India's people," the Congress leader said.

"The opposition would like to assist you in your work. I am confident you will allow us to speak in the House," he said.

Gandhi also pointed out that the opposition this time represents significantly more voices of the Indian people than last time.

Several opposition leaders, including Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav, echoed him.

"We believe you will move forward without discrimination and as the speaker, you will give equal opportunity and respect to every party. Impartiality is a great responsibility of this great post. You... Are the chief justice of the court of democracy," Yadav said

Birla, 62, who has risen through the ranks in the BJP, is a third-term MP of the party and also a three-term former Rajasthan MLA.

Earlier in the morning, the prime minister moved the motion for election of Birla as the speaker. It was seconded by Defence Minister Rajnath Singh.

NDA allies JD(U) member Rajiv Ranjan Singh, HAM(S) member Jitan Ram Manjhi, Shiv Sena member Prataprao Jadhav, LJP(RV) member Chirag Paswan also moved motions in Birla's favour.

Shiv Sena (UBT) member Arvind Sawant moved the motion to elect Congress' Suresh to the post.

the prime minister's, became infructuous

The opposition's last-minute decision to go for a contest came after senior BJP leaders did not agree to the precondition that the INDIA bloc must be offered the post of deputy speaker in lieu of supporting Birla.

A brief interaction involving Congress' K C Venugopal and DMK's T R Baalu from the opposition side and Union ministers Rajnath Singh, Amit Shah and J P Nadda on Tuesday to evolve a consensus ended in acrimony with both sides sticking to their positions.

Both opposition leaders walked out of Singh's office where they met, with Venugopal accusing the government of not following the "convention" of an opposition candidate for the deputy speaker's position and then announcing the decision to field a candidate against Birla.

Union ministers Piyush Goyal of the BJP and Lalan Singh of the JD(U) accused the opposition of resorting to pressure politics and putting forth preconditions despite senior ministers' assurance that its demand will be considered when the time to pick the Deputy Speaker comes.

With the NDA having 293 MPs in its kitty and the INDIA bloc 233 in the Lok Sabha, the numbers were clearly in favour of Birla. The Lok Sabha currently has 542 members after Rahul Gandhi resigned from one of the two seats he was elected from. At least three independent members also support the opposition.

Balram Jakhar is the only presiding officer to have served two complete terms extending seventh and eighth Lok Sabha.

Meanwhile, Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla on Wednesday hoped that there will be criticism and disagreement in the House but no disruptions.

While thanking the House on being elected as the Lok Sabha Speaker for the second consecutive term, Birla said he will work to uphold the high standards of Parliamentary traditions.

"Treasury and opposition benches run the House together, the strength of Indian running the House with everyone's agreement. I will expect that I run the House with everyone's agreement. Even if there is lone member from a party, they should get sufficient time," Birla said.

FROM PAGE 1 democracy is in listening to everyone, and

"It will be my expectation that the House runs without obstruction. We are elected by people with hope, that is why I urge there should not be disruptions in the House. There can be criticism, but obstruction is not a tradition of the House. Rushing to the Well is not a tradition of Parliament," Birla said.

"I never want to act against any member, but everyone wants the high standard of Parliamentary tradition to be maintained. For that I have to make tough decisions at times." he said

While stating that agreements and disagreements are a part of the tradition of the House, he hoped opposition would give constructive suggestions and government will incorporate those suggestions.

"I urge all that in the 18th Lok Sabha, while remembering the great architects of Constitution, we should make policies and laws that will help the downtrodden sections of the society," he said.

He also welcomed the 281 first time members to Lok Sabha, and said they should learn about Parliamentary traditions and practices from their seniors.

JKBOSE refutes News Report

Top News Report

JAMMU, June 26: JKBOSE has refuted the news report appearing in a section of press alleging that the Board is not renewing the affiliation of the Private schools and shifted the students of these schools to the Government Schools because of delayed affiliation. "The news item is causing misinformation which can cause widespread concern and anxiety among the school community, parents, students and educators. We would like to clarify and correct these claims, as they do not accurately reflect the current situation or the Board's policies," the Board said

Firstly, it is essential to understand that the Board is committed to ensuring the highest standards of education and compliance with regulations across all affiliated schools. The process of affiliation is a standard online procedure that all schools have to maintain these standards.

The process of renewal of affiliation involves reviewing applications for adherence to the prescribed guidelines and educational standards. The guidelines include compliance to Building Safety, Fire Safety, Chemical Safety, traffic safety, Fee Fixation Committee approvals, Management Committee, requirement of land with NOC from Revenue Department and other such requisites. Board has not made a blanket decision to halt renewal of the affiliation. Instead, it is ensuring that all schools comply with updated regulations which have temporarily delayed the process for some institutions so that they could be given appropriate time to comply with the norms and prescribed guidelines.

Meeting of the Affiliation Committee is already scheduled to be held on 01.07.2024 and the renewal of affiliation cases of the institutions which meet the criteria are being placed before the Affiliation Committee for final approval. Although this meeting was earlier scheduled in the month of January was postponed due to some administrative reasons and due to the pre-occupation of the members. JKBOSE is maintaining open communication with all schools to address any concern and provide the necessary support for compliance. However, it is crucial to note that temporary delays should not be construed as outright rejections and the date of meeting has already been fixed for 1st of July, 2024 in which various schools shall be affiliated with J&K BOSE for the release of various Board related facilities.

TV Broadcast Highlights Rohit Sharma's Weakness, Sunil Gavaskar Says Not A Problem

Rohit got out to left-arm pace after his whirlwind 92 off 41 balls vs Australia in the Super 8 stage of the T20 World Cup 2024.

GROS ISLET (ST LUCIA), Jun 26 (Agencies): India cricket legend Sunil Gavaskar slammed his broadcaster Star Sports for using a graphic about Rohit Sharma's weakness against left-arm seamers during India's Super 8 clash against Australia in the 2024 T20 World Cup. While Rohit's flaws against left-arm seam are widely known, he smacked leftarm pacer Mitchell Starc for 29 runs in an over, en route to his 41-ball 92. However, after Starc did get Rohit out, Star Sports put up a graphic about Rohit's dismissals against left-arm pacers, which left Gavaskar annoyed.

"Thinking about Rohit Sharma once again, he got out to a lefthander (left-arm seamer). So before the next match, are we going to do another segment about his weakness to lefthanders?" asked a bewildered Gavaskar

Aaron Finch, who was sitting next to Gavaskar in the commentary box, reasoned that there are a lot more left-arm pacers nowadays, with not only Starc for Australia, but also the likes of Trent Boult (New Zealand) and Shaheen Shah Afridi (Pakistan).

"There are more left-armers playing now, and they are genuine swing bowlers. So that poses a challenge to the opening batter," said Finch, trying to justify the graphic. Gavaskar retorted, saying that it isn't a problem worth highlighting.

"I don't think you should be looking much into that. If you're playing attacking shots when the ball is swinging in, you will be out LBW, you will be out bowled," said Gavaskar, the first man to reach 10,000 Test runs. While Rohit Sharma played one of the best innings of the 2024 T20 World Cup, his opening partner Virat Kohli got out for his second duck of the tournament. Gavaskar has recently come under attack on social media for his supposed biased analysis towards the dismissals of the two batters.

"Commentators create divide between players and the fans," one user had tweeted, after Gavaskar criticised Kohli's shotselection against Bangladesh. whilst calling Rohit's approach a selfless one.

SA vs AFG: Afghanistan not in semi-finals to compete, here to win, says Jonathan Trott

TRINIDAD, Jun 26 (Agencies): Afghanistan coach Jonathan Trott has claimed that his side is in the semifinals of the T20 World Cup 2024 not just to compete but go out and win. Afghanistan scripted history when they defeated Bangladesh as they qualified for the final four stages of a major ICC event for the very first time. The Rashid-Khan led side made it out of two tough groups in the tournament where they had to face the likes of India, Australia, New Zealand and the West Indies.

Speaking to the reporters ahead of the semifinal clash, Trott admitted that his side did leave a lot of runs in their thrilling win over Bangladesh. However, the Afghanistan coach the wins over big teams like Australia and New Zealand will serve them well in the match against South Africa.

I'm not sure if it's a little bit of nerves. But heck, we're in the semi-final now, nothing to lose. Very, very positive from now on in. But by no means do we feel like we're going into the semi-final just to compete."

"We're there to win the semi-final. We've seen we've beaten some clash and put pressure on South Africa.

"I think it's a case of us just looking at what we need to improve on, which is a few little areas. Nothing too major, just tighten up. I think it's just a sort of mindset shift if I like. But I also think, we go into the semi-final with no scarring or no history with regards to semifinals. This is uncharted territory for us. We're just going to go out there and give it our all. There's no preconceived ideas on it all, or history of failure or success in semifinals in past years. For us it's a new challenge and I think that makes us dangerous in the semifinals as a side with nothing to lose and obviously a lot of pressure on the opposition," said Trott.

Argentina advances to Copa America quarterfinals, beats Chile 1-0 on Martínez 88th-minute goal

EAST RUTHERFORD, Jun 26 (Agencies): After nearly 90 minutes of total domination. Lionel Messi and defending champion Argentina advanced to the Copa America quarterfinals after the ball ricocheted in front of the net during a frantic scramble that led to the breakthrough.

Lautaro Martínez scored off the last in a series of rebounds in the 88th minute, lifting the Albiceleste over Chile 1-0 on Tuesday night and into the quarterfinals with a game to spare.

"The ball ended up right at me and I was able to convert it," said Martínez, who scored the second goal in last week's opening 2-0 win over Canada.

Messi started the leadup to the goal with a corner kick that was sent sent toward goal with a glancing header by defender Lisandro Martínez. The ball landed in front of goalkeeper Claudio Bravo. where Argentina's Giovani Lo Celso and Chile's Nicolás Fernández were wrestling. Lo Celso kicked the ball off Bravo and it rebounded to Chile's Igor Lichnovsky, who tried to poke it wide.

Lautaro Martínez, who entered in the 73rd, calmly one-timed that rebound into the roof of the net on Argentina's 21st shot. Players stood and waited for three minutes while the goal, Martínez's 26th for the national team, was confirmed in a video review.

"We deserved the win. It was not an easy match," Argentina coach Lionel Scaloni said. "We managed to win at the moment least expected."

Argentina leads Group A with six points, followed by Canada with three, and Chile and Peru with one each. The Albiceleste finish the first round against Peru at Miami Gardens, Florida, on Saturday, when Canada meets Chile in Orlando, Florida.

Playing a day after his 37th birthday, Messi frequently flaunted his talent to spin around and slalom through defenders before an adoring sellout crowd of 81,106 at MetLife Stadium, site of the 2026 World Cup final. Argentina dominated 22-3 in shots and 11-0 in corner kicks. Chile didn't take its first attempt until the 72nd minute. Messi came the closest to scoring before Martínez with a 30-yard shot that glanced off the post to Bravo's left in the 36th minute. Messi had received treatment on the thigh area of his right leg for nearly two minutes after getting kicked by Gabriel Suazo in the 24th.

Nicolás González's shot from another Messi pass in the 62nd was parried off the crossbar by Bravo.

Argentina outshot Chile 17-0 before Rodrigo Echeverría's 72ndminute effort following a turnover was saved by Emiliano Martínez, who blocked the ball while falling after it deflected off Alexis Mac Allister. The goalkeeper then used his right hand to bat another Echeverría shot in the 76th that deflected off a toe of defender Cristian Romero.

"I always have to save one or two every match. And I'm lucky to keep doing it," Martínez said.

On the 46th anniversary of Argentina's first World Cup title, the teams returned to the stadium where Chile beat Argentina on penalty kicks in the 2016 Copa America final. That defeat prompted Messi to announce his international retirement only to reverse his decision seven weeks later.

At least 90% of the fans wore Argentina jerseys, most with Messi's name and No. 10.

There were some small brown patches behind one goal on a grass field installed at a stadium where the usual surface is artificial turf. The surface was narrow, with construction scheduled to allow a wider field for the World Cup.

Bravo, at 41 the oldest player in Copa America history, had eight saves in his 150th international appearance. He and Messi, former Barcelona teammates, spoke with each other while leading their teams onto the field for the national anthems.

"Losing this way leaves a bitter taste," Bravo said. "We played against a tremendous opponent."

JAMMU, June 26: Jammu and Kashmir Excise Department in collaboration with Natrang presented Balwant Thakur's acclaimed Hindi play 'JAAL' under the direction of Neeraj Kant here today at Excise and Taxation Training Institute, Nagrota, Jammu. In a very effective manner this powerful play innovatively showcases how the Drug-menace is ruining the generations like a rapid fire, crippling the developing nations like India. The youth of the country, the largest energetic and most productive human resource of the country, sometimes unknowingly slip into the trap of dangerous drug menace. The play was not based on one story-line but as an experiment Balwant Thakur has woven multiple stories in one theme focusing the spread of drug menace like a mesh, thus taking the toll of the strongest workforce of the country. In a sequence a young boy is shown struagling for a good company after his passing of the school and his entry in the college.Majority of his age group is shown indulged in drugs and he finds himself isolated for not being the consumer of intoxications. All around him treat him like a child which really frustrates him and to prove that he has grown-up as a young man now, he finds the easiest way and demonstrates his coming of age by consuming a variety of intoxications. In another sequence a rural inhabitation particularly the menfolk are shown drowned in the menace of alcohol. All the miseries of the village like poverty, domestic violence, and ailments are attributed to the constant growth of consumption of alcohol in the village. In a sequence the daily routine of a villager is shown who consumes the whole of his daily earnings seeking alcohol. Being drunk completely he has lost his way home. By the time a local escorts him to his place where in the middle of the night this drunken man starts beating his sleeping wife and kids for not receiving him on his arrival. When the escort intervenes to save the poor lady and children, he is blamed for having ill intentions towards his wife. This fight further messes up when a drunken man after losing senses damages his

household belongings as well. The play unfolds a series of incidents where people influenced by drugs, alcohol and other intoxications create hell for themselves as well as for others. Many precious lives are being charred in this fire of drug menace which is to be fought unitedly to bring them out of the mesh of drugs menace.

Through this play Balwant Thakur has tried to make an appeal to save mankind from this dragon. The best way to save the youth from this menace of drugs is to make them aware of its severe consequences.

Actors who outshined in their respective performances and left an impact on their acting included Neeraj Kant, Aadesh Dhar, Palshin Dutta, Vishal Sharma, Chaitanya Shekhar, Sanket Bhagat, Kushal Bhat and Brijesh Avtar Sharma. The show was coordinated by Mohd. Yaseen
